'Walking in Light'

'I've seen the last page and it's a happy ending!'

Are you ever tempted with your holiday reading to skip forward to the back of the book to see how things end?

We Christians are given to do this with the Bible. We are shown how this present age ends and a new one of resurrection and eternal life begins. The final pages of Scripture in Revelation 21 and 22 literally give a picture of a new, heavenly Jerusalem, a garden city inhabited by people from all nations, forgiven, healed and united under our Saviour King Jesus.

Raised like Him, we will suffer no more sin or strife, no more sickness, disability or bereavement.

'The ransomed of the Lord will return.

They will enter Zion with singing;

Everlasting joy will crown their heads.

Gladness and joy will overtake them,

And sorrow and sighing will flee away.' (Isaiah 51 v 11)

Between now and then there will be challenges, of course there will. We'd be naïve to think otherwise.

But children of God do not grope around helplessly in the dark. We are granted to live in the light of the resurrection! Our Master died but rose victorious and reigns from glory. Because He overcame the world, so can we in His name.

Let's live to please and serve Him together, in anticipation of the day He comes and gathers us home!
